DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5, 7, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Duffy, Jr. (U.S. Patent 5,535,969).

Duffy, Jr. teaches an attaching device comprising a clip main member having interengaging first and second parts (12, 14). Each of the parts has pressing portions (32, 52) formed on the inner side thereof (Figure 2, for example) such that they each project toward the pressing portions of the other part. There is an engaging portion (28, 48).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 6, 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Duffy, Jr., as applied above.

Art Unit: 3671

Regarding claim 6, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have made the device of Duffy, Jr. separately in order to better suit a particular application. Note that making an integrally formed structure separate is not patentable subject matter.

Duffy, Jr. does not specify the fuel tank band; however, it is well known to use bands to fix fuel tanks. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used Duffy, Jr. with a fuel tank band in order to obtain a desired connection.

Bands having a varied cross section are well known. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used a band having a varied cross section with Duffy, Jr. in order to properly fit a particular application.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed March 22, 2005 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO

Art Unit: 3671

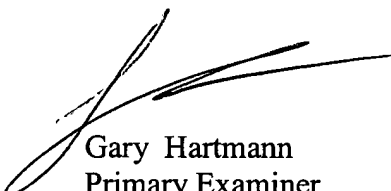

MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
